STUDENT SELECTION

VERSION: 1.1

All student selection processes will be aimed at selecting in order of merit those students who demonstrate the most potential to achieve the outcomes of the course concerned.

This selection process will require students to meet the minimum entry requirements and may include student interviews, literacy/numeracy tests and assessment of experience gained in the relevant field where applicable.

Students who fail literacy and numeracy tests will be counselled and be given an opportunity to undertake a remedial training program prior to re applying for entry to the course concerned.

Students with disabilities will not be excluded from AWT courses and every reasonable effort will be made to provide the necessary facilities/resources to enable them to participate.

All student selection processes will be aimed at selecting in order of merit those students who demonstrate the most potential to achieve the outcomes of the course concerned.
